Pack Snapshot

- Buyer: Niche B2B operators
- Category: AI Tool
- Startup cost: $0
- Time to first sale: 2-4 weeks
- Difficulty: Hard
- Positioning hook: Do not build the AI app. Sell the manual workflow first.

Asset objective

- Manual delivery proves buyer demand and exposes the real automation requirements before software spend.
- Keep the promise concrete: This requires sales and niche discipline.
- Use this asset to create a buyer-ready deliverable, not as a generic brainstorming note.

Core checklist

- Score buyer pain based on current cost, frequency, and urgency.
- Score manual deliverability before considering software.
- Score willingness to pay from real conversations, not compliments.
- Score repeatability only after three delivered outcomes.
- Automate one repeated step at a time.

Quality bar

- The asset should be specific enough that a buyer can approve it without a meeting.
- Every recommendation must be visible, actionable, and easy to explain.
- Remove anything that sounds impressive but does not change buyer behavior.

Delivery note

- Send the finished asset with a short summary of what changed.
- Include the next recommended step, the owner input needed, and the review deadline.
- Keep a copy of before/after evidence for renewals and follow-ups.

Weighted scorecard

- Pain frequency: 1-5, weight 20%.
- Current cost of pain: 1-5, weight 20%.
- Manual deliverability: 1-5, weight 20%.
- Willingness to pay evidence: 1-5, weight 25%.
- Repeatability: 1-5, weight 15%.
- Do not automate below 18/25 or before three paid deliveries.

Decision examples

- 16/25: stop or reposition; the pain is not proven enough.
- 19/25: keep selling manually and improve delivery SOP.
- 22/25 with three paid deliveries: automate one repeated low-risk step.
- Do not automate unclear intake, subjective judgment, or high-risk customer communication first.

Delivery standards (shared)

- This asset is for niche b2b operators; replace bracketed fields with their specifics before sending.
- Full delivery standards - inputs to collect, evidence capture, pricing and scope guardrails, and the pre-send QA list - live once in this pack's AI Prompt Pack.
- Verify every fact, price, date, hour, link, and claim against a source, and keep approvals in writing.
- Never imply guaranteed revenue, rankings, bookings, retention, or ad performance.
